The OTA exists to:

- encourage study
- promote the highest standards of practice
- advance the knowledge of orthodontic laboratory and clinical techniques for the benefit of the orthodontic team and patient

If you are registered with the General Dental Council or have a Dental Technology qualification you may become a Member of the OTA. If you have an advanced Orthodontic qualification you may join as a Licentiate of the OTA. International, student and retired grades of membership are also available.

Current benefits of membership include:

- Full access to the OTA website (www.ota-uk.org), including Enhanced CPD, Technical Walkthroughs, Vacancies page, 'Find a Laboratory facility' and much more.
- Discounted rates for the OTA Conference and British Orthodontic Conference.
- A quarterly OTA newsletter that includes FREE Verifiable CPD and the BOS News publications.
- Discounted subscription rate to the Journal of Orthodontics.
- Your support ensures Orthodontic Technicians are represented at meetings the OTA Council attend.

To become a member of the OTA please complete and return the application enclosed to the Membership Secretary at the above address. Please note we require copies of your qualification certificates if:

1. You are NOT registered with the GDC.
2. You are applying as a Licentiate of the OTA.
